

Internal Resource Restructuring Programme Factsheet

Each Monetical internal resource restructuring programme grants timely and cost effective access to the right subject matter expertise, unique analytical tools and online collaborative capabilities. These three core capabilities are exploited by each programme manager via a number of online modules at various stages of the programme workflow to deliver effective, efficient and timely programmes.

Monetical is a comprehensive online collaborative consulting platform that:

- contains a number of tailored programmes
- enables programme performance evaluation
- enables programme performance optimisation
- helps identify key performance inferences
- streamlines programme execution

Subject Matter Expertise

Each internal resource restructuring programme provides a quick start knowledge acquisition and continuous access to leading subject matter expertises from industry, academic and industry bodies, including:

- Innovation Management
- Organisational Communication
- Operational Management
- Resource Management

This expertise is exploited by programme owners and stakeholder via a number of collaborative consulting modules, including:

- Dedicated programme discussion Forum
- Programme checklists and audits
- Real-time programme evaluation and optimisation
- Series of programme performance reports

Online availability of this innovative consulting platform guides the programme owner through the appropriate programme schedule; ensuring programme performance is benchmarked at key stages inline with industry best practices.

Collaborative Support

Each online collaborative consulting programme includes a repository of support and reference material, Programme Workflow - several recommend programme workflows.

Knowledge Central - Online access to user manuals and on-demand support features.

Whitepapers, Surveys & More - Latest industry material on a range of commercial and technical topics.

Online Training Material - Dedicated online product training

Programme Dashboard

A single online user interface for Programme Owners, which grants direct access to all the necessary programme modules, reports, industry expertise and collaborative capabilities.

Audits & Surveys

Approximately, 30 preassigned audits & surveys and support for custom specific audits and surveys, help benchmark each programme against industry best practise, individual organisations and their client requirements.

Checklists

Approximately, 18 preassigned checklists and support for custom specific checklists, enable continuous go / no tollgate assessment.

Guidelines

Over 50 preassigned guidelines and support for custom guidelines, provides rapid, effective and timely access to the most appropriate subject matter expertise, exploited to complete specific programme requirements or manage unforeseen programme challenges.